1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 This insider trading policy with regard to Inside Information and securities trading (the Policy) has been adopted by the managing board of Shop Apotheke Europe N.V. This Policy is effective as of 17 June 2021, and will be publicly available on the Company's corporate website.
- 1.2 Appendix I of this Policy contains the definitions used in this Policy.
- 1.3 The MAR sets forth obligations for the Company, its Employees and Board Members with respect to the ownership of, and transactions in, the Company Securities. Article 18 of the MAR also requires the Company to keep a list of persons who, on regular or incidental basis, may have Inside Information, and Article 19 of the MAR requires a list of PDMRs and of PCAs.
- 1.4 This Policy aims to promote compliance with the relevant obligations and restrictions under applicable securities law, including the MAR.
- 1.5 This Policy applies to all Employees and Board Members irrespective of whether the Employee or Board Member executes a transaction for his or her own account, for another person's account or as another person's representative.
- 1.6 Employees and Board Members who are required to make a notification pursuant to this Policy are responsible for the correctness and timeliness of such notification event, if the Compliance Officer or another person submits the notification on their behalf.
- 1.7 Non-compliance with the provisions of this Policy may lead to internal disciplinary measures and to administrative or criminal sanctions or penalties described in Appendix II of this Policy.

2. INSIDE INFORMATION

- 2.1 Inside Information is information (i) of a precise nature, (ii) which has not been made public, (iii) relating, directly or indirectly, to the Company and/or the Company Securities and (iv) which, if it were made public, would be likely to have a significant effect on the price of the Company Securities.
- 2.2 Information is considered to be of a precise nature if (i) it indicates a set of circumstances which exist or which may reasonably be expected to come into existence, or (ii) it relates to an event which has occurred or which may reasonably be expected to occur, and (iii) where such information is specific enough to enable a conclusion to be drawn as to the possible effect of that set of circumstances or event on the prices of Company Securities. In other words, rumours or speculations are not considered to be information of a precise nature.
- 2.3 Information is considered to be likely to have a significant effect on the price of the Company Securities, if a reasonable investor would be likely to use such information as part of the basis of his/her/its investment decisions.

3. RULES FOR ALL EMPLOYEES AND BOARD MEMBERS

3.1 No Insider Trading

If an Employee or Board Member possesses Inside Information, he/she may not use that information to Trade, or attempt to Trade, in Company Securities. A cancellation or amendment of an order concerning Company Securities is also considered to be Trading.

This prohibition does not apply if the Employee or Board Member Trades in discharge of an obligation that has become due in good faith (and not to circumvent the insider trading prohibition or for any other illegitimate reason) and where (i) the obligation results from an order placed, or an agreement concluded, before the Employee or Board Member concerned possessed the Inside Information, or (ii) the transaction is carried out to satisfy a legal or regulatory obligation that arose, before the Employee or Board Member concerned possessed Inside Information.

3.2 No Unlawful Disclosures or tipping

Employees and Board Members are prohibited from engaging in the Unlawful Disclosure of Inside Information.

An Employee or Board Member may not disclose Inside Information to anyone else, except where (i) the disclosure is made in the normal exercise of such Employee's or Board Members' employment, profession or duties and (ii) the recipient of such Inside Information is under an obligation of confidentiality (e.g. pursuant to a non-disclosure agreement).

The onward disclosure of recommendations or inducements amounts to Unlawful Disclosure, where the Employee or Board Member disclosing the recommendation or inducement knows or ought to know that it was based on Inside Information. Therefore, an Employee or Board Member may not recommend or induce anyone to engage in Trading in Company Securities whilst he/she is in the possession of Inside Information.

3.3 No Trading during Closed Periods

PDMRs, which includes members of the managing board of the Company (the Managing Board) and members of the Supervisory Board, may not Trade in Company Securities during a Closed Period, regardless of whether they possess Inside Information.

Closed Periods are:

- (a) the period of 30 calendar days prior to the publication of the Company's annual or semi-annual financial statements and quarterly earnings releases.

The Compliance Officer is responsible for announcing which periods in a financial year are Closed Periods and will communicate the specific dates of the Closed Periods in any financial year on the Company's intranet and corporate website prior to the start of each financial year. Any changes or additions will be announced in the same manner in the course of the financial year.

3.4 No Trading in Company Securities if on Insider List

Employees and Board Members who have Inside Information are prohibited from Trading in the relevant Company Securities to which the Inside Information relates. In addition, an Employee or Board Member is prohibited from Trading during any period in which the Employee or Board Member has been prohibited doing so by the Compliance Officer.

3.5 No Trading in Company Securities in violation of Company's instructions

An Employee or Board Member may not Trade in Company Securities when the Compliance Officer has prohibited him/her from doing so, regardless of whether he/she possesses Inside Information.

3.6 Dispensation

The Compliance Officer may grant an Employee or Board Member dispensation from any of the restrictions included in clauses 3.3 through 3.5 of this Policy, to the extent permitted by applicable law. Any dispensation request must be made in writing stating the reasons for the request. Any dispensation from a prohibition granted by the Compliance Officer is without prejudice to the statutory market abuse prohibitions, including the prohibition on insider trading.

3.7 Consultation Compliance Officer

An Employee or Board Member may consult the Compliance Officer on whether a particular Trading or other behaviour is allowed under this clause 3. Further details regarding consultations with the Compliance Officer are set forth in clause 8.4 of this Policy.

3.8 Miscellaneous

Without prejudice to the statutory market abuse prohibitions, the restrictions included in clauses 3.3 through 3.6 will continue to have effect until six months after the date on which the Employee or Board Member (i) will have ceased to be employed by the Company, or (ii) will have ceased to occupy the relevant position with the Company, as the case may be.

3.9 At least once a year the Compliance Officer will organise a training on insider trading and capital market compliance. For the Managing Board, the Supervisory Board, other PDMRs and senior managers such training is mandatory. The Compliance Officer will keep attendance records.

4. ADDITIONAL RULES FOR PDMRS, AND MEMBERS OF THE MANAGING BOARD AND SUPERVISORY BOARD

4.1 Long-term investment

If a member of the Supervisory Board holds Company Securities, he/she should hold these for long-term investment purposes. This obligation will continue to have effect until six months after the date on which the member of the Supervisory Board will have ceased to occupy that position with the Company.

4.2 Other prohibitions

When Trading in Company Securities, each member of the Managing Board and Supervisory Board will obtain approval of the Compliance Officer.

PDMRs are prohibited from Trading in Company Securities and subsequently, during the following six months, Trading in Company Securities which has the effect of undoing or limiting the risk of the first Trading. This prohibition does not apply if the first Trading is the exercise of an option granted by the Company and the second Trading is the sale of the Company's Securities acquired by the exercise of such option.

PDMRs are also prohibited of writing (selling) and buying options (or similar Trading such as (naked) short sales) on Company Securities and on affiliated financial instruments. This prohibition does not apply with respect to Company Securities accepted in connection with a stock option plan.

The restrictions in this clause 4.2 will continue to have effect until six months after the date on which the member of the Managing Board or Supervisory Board, or other PDMR, will have (i) ceased to be employed by the Company, or (ii) ceased to occupy that position with the Company, as the case may be.

4.3 Notifications by members of the Managing Board and of the Supervisory Board

Each member of the Managing Board and each member of the Supervisory Board must notify both the AFM and the Compliance Officer of the following, and at the time indicated:

- (a) without delay: every change in the number and/or type in his/her share and/or voting interest in the Company. In this context "share" also includes rights to obtain shares, such as options. A change in the type of interest will, for example, occur if an option is exercised and consequently shares are obtained;
- (b) without delay and ultimately within three business days: every (other) transaction in Company Securities conducted by him/her or on his/her account. A non-exhaustive list of transactions that must be notified is included in Appendix III of this Policy; and
- (c) within two weeks of the appointment as a member of the Managing Board or as a member of the Supervisory Board, as the case may be: his/her holding in Company Securities or voting rights.

The required notification form for the public disclosure of notifiable transactions can be downloaded from the website of the AFM. The Company must make public the information, contained in a notification referred to in this clause 4.3, within two business days after the date of receipt of such a notification.

Each PDMR, other than a member of the Managing Board or a member of the Supervisory Board, must promptly, and ultimately within three business days, notify both the AFM and the Compliance Officer of every transaction in Company Securities conducted by him/her or on his/her account. A non-exhaustive list of transactions that must be notified is included in Appendix III of this Policy.

4.4 Other rules relating to notifications for PDMRs, including members of the Managing Board and Supervisory Board

PDMRs must instruct any person arranging or executing transactions on their behalf, such as an individual portfolio manager, to timely inform them (i) of any transaction or change that is notifiable under clauses 4.3 and/or 0 of this Policy, or (ii) to make the required notifications on their behalf.

PDMRs must provide a list to the Compliance Officer of all persons that qualify as their PCAs and specify how they are associated with them.

PDMRs must inform their PCAs in writing (and keep a copy thereof) of their duty to notify the AFM and the Compliance Officer promptly and ultimately within three business days of every transaction in Company Securities.

PDMRs will use their best efforts to discourage PCAs to enter into transactions in violation of this Policy.
